

PSRW Presents
the 6th Annual TALENT COMPETITION

The 2004 Public Service Recognition Week (PSRW)
Celebration is on May 5th at Heritage Park on Capitol Lake in Olympia.

BY POPULAR DEMAND, we have extended the talent competition deadline to get your tapes in. Remember, "We want to see it!" If you (or your group) like to sing, dance, or tell jokes, then it's time to step on stage and compete for the coveted "You Bowled Them Over" trophy! The competition will be judged by a select group of agency and legislative leaders who will score ten finalists at the celebration event. In order to be eligible, you must be a state employee and submit your audio/video tape/CD, with a vocal number no longer than 4 minutes to:

Jeana Johnson-State Auditor's Office
PO Box 40021 / Mail Stop 40021
Olympia, WA 98504-0021

NEW DEADLINE—WEDNESDAY APRIL 14, 2004

PSRW is facilitated by the Washington State Productivity Board and celebrates the contributions made by public service professionals. Finalists will be chosen based on their performance. Please include your name, agency, address, e-mail and work phone with your recording. Finalists must perform on May 5th with recorded accompaniment only. All tapes will be returned and finalists will be notified by April 14, 2004. For more information please contact Jeana Johnson at: 360.902.0374 or johnsonj@sao.wa.gov
